

BYRA BURBLER

Weekly Issue No. BB02-06 for 2006-2007 Season

16 November 2006

The Sun shined down on BYRA.....ATLAST
.....the SMILE says it ALL

Welcome to our new weekly version of Burbler, that will make life easier for everyone and especially BB Ed. Don't worry, we will have a full version atleast monthly, depending on how much our kids inflict stress on St Peter to make it worthwhile to print.

Sailing Report

This week was FANTASTIC with beautiful NE winds and yes SUN.

Highlights were:

- Angus yet again showing his skills and patience in the Spiral. He was last seen heading towards Lion Island with another Spiral and a PJ closely following. Ps guys, that race is not till the END of the season, check the program next week.
- Evelyn showing how it all gets boring if she stays in a PJ, but we have an answer to that. Next week 29er or Cherub for sure, especially the one that tips end up first.
- Jordan hiding in the moorings like she was really trying, when all she wanted to do was float about, check out the sea life and hide from St Peter.
- Mathew and Elizabeth in their new Spiral, with Mathew doing ALL the work.
- All sailors being affected by the coal fumes from that old motor boat that was visiting RMYC wooden boat festival. Where are the greenies when you need them to protest!!!

Star of the Week

Without a doubt.... Angus. Fantastic stuff and you are now ready to take on all comers.

Coaches Highlight

When St Peter chucked a tantrum when he realised no one brought the coffee... and then he wanted sympathy for his cold. As his family say,.....dream on.

Next Week

Don't forget to scam your parents and get in first for the new batch of BYRA rashies which are just $35 and FANTASTIC value and very COOL. They are important in helping with sun protection. See Kim when you arrive, as numbers are limited.
