Risk Notice

The sport of sailing involves interacting with and harnessing the natural environment; as a result there are a number of inherent risks. These risks are present both onshore and whilst afloat and may include but are not limited to, sunburn, cuts or grazes, bruising, or head injuries. When sailing dinghies on inshore waters, serious injuries of the type that can cause permanent disablement or even death are very rare but can and do occur. As with any water sport, the possibility of drowning is also present. While for sailing activities a patrol boat might be present, the boat cannot be everywhere at once, can not observe every incident that occurs and may not always recognise an observed incident as being a serious one requiring immediate response. First aid or medical assistance is not available.

I have read and understood the above risk warning and I agree that I participate in the sport of sailing at my own risk and I acknowledge that neither the appointed coaches, nor any official, volunteer or member, of BYRA or New South Wales Yachting shall be under any liability whatsoever for the death or bodily injury, loss or damage which may be suffered or incurred by me or the minors for whom I am responsible. I also acknowledge that neither the appointed coaches nor any official, volunteer or member of BYRA or NSW Yachting shall be under any liability for any loss or damage to personal property which may be suffered or incurred by me or the minors for whom I am responsible.

I understand that I or the minor for whom I am responsible may be photographed or filmed while participating in training activities conducted by NSW Yachting and I hereby give permission for the use of my name or the name of the minor for whom I am responsible to be used in all forms of media for promotional purposes. BYRA or its coaches are not responsible for supervising minors while ashore. This is the responsibility of their parents or delegated adult.
